They do not take one position of defense and stand by it. They ask you to believe that the shooting was an accident and also to believe that Griffith was insane at the time. Not long ago they would have placed his act at the door of irresistible impulse. But the Courts saw through that thin device and decided that the so-called irresistible impulse was no defense for crime. Then the doctors substituted temporary insanity and with this specious defense, backed up by bad evidence, they are trying to free this man, who in cold blood set out to murder his wife.

Every hope, every expec-tation awakened by them has been more than fulfilled. More great cures of Simple, Scrofulous, and Hereditary Humors are daily made by them than by all other Blood and Skin Remedies combined, sufficient to cure the most distressing cases when all else fails.
