JUDGE SMITH SCORES GRIFFITH WITH STINGING SENTENCE; RICH AND INFLUENTIAL CRIMINAL GIVEN LIMIT OF PENALTY

"Mr. Griffith, you called this woman to kneel and you subjected her upon the prayer book of her church to the most revolting, gross, insulting and degrading questions that a man could possibly propound to his wife, and while she was begging for mercy and a little time in which to pray you discharged that murderous weapon full in her face. Mr. Griffith, a more aggravated assault I have never heard of in an experience of fourteen years on the bench.'

-JUDGE SMITH in sentencing G. J. GRIFFITH

"Mr. Griffith, the circumstances connected with this assault are very aggravating. The assault was made upon your wire, the woman who for sixteen years had been takeful and true and loving and kind and self-sacrificing to you. At the time of the assault Mr. Griffith, you called this woman to kneel fad you subjected her upon the prayer book of her church the most revolving, gross insulting and degrading questions that a near could possibly bropound to his wife. And while she was thus seeing your presented a loaded revolver to her face, and while she was begging for mercy and a little time in which to pray, you discharged that murderous weapon full in her face, striking her forehead, the shit portion of the bullet being deflected downward ard obliterating the sight of one of her eyes. She, in great consternation and frenzy, threw herself out of the window before your face and ord. Taking set or lifteen fee and breaking her arm.

"Now these, briefly are the circumstances of the annual tof which you have been convicted. I do not know, here orifith, how you can expect anything art the most seyer penalty that can be inflicted upon you. Indeed, Ma Orifith, the fourtr had not true to the inflicted upon you. Indeed, Ma Orifith, the fourtr had not true in the inflicted upon you. Indeed, Ma Orifith, the fourtr had not true to conviction was returned that it would inflict the extreme penalty upon you, because, Mr. Griffith, a more agravated assault I have never heard of in an experience of fourteen years on this bench.

Therefore, in order to carry out the verdict it is ordered and stated that would confined in the state prison as San Quagnit for "Mr. Griffith, the circumstances connected with this assault are
