

MAYOR M. P. SNYDER ENTERTAINS COMMISSIONERS

Splendid Banquet at the Angelus Is Marked by Expressions of Good Will—Mayor Is Presented With a Handsome Silver Service as a Token of the Esteem in Which He Is Held

Every branch of municipal government was represented and many phases of the government of a city were discussed at the banquet last night at the Angelus hotel, given by Mayor M. P. Snyder to the members of the several boards and commissions appointed by him un-himself and the city on this fact, and congratulated himself also on his excellent taste in selecting men for the commissions, claiming credit for having found the handsomest men in the city.

The banquet hall was decorated with out his ideas, but rather his wishes for the city, which they would do best by remaining true to their own consciences. No pledge had been asked of the commissioners, but they were free to act. "Criticism does not hurt a public official if he is performing his conscientious duty," concluded the mayor.

Major Diss read a telegram from F. K. Rule of the police commission, who is in San Francisco. Mr. Rule wired more than regrets, expressing in the telegram his high regard for the mayor and his wishes for the city.

J. M. Elliott spoke to the toast, "The Mayor." "The first election of our mayor, I will admit, was something in the nature of an experiment," Mr. Elliott said, "the second was an endorsement of the first administration. Last election he came before the people backed only by a small minority, yet we elect was a great majority. He has appointed men who will give the city the best government that it has ever had."

Henry W. O'Melveny spoke for the civil service commission, telling of some of the trials of the members of the "baby commission." As an illustration of the requests that come to the members, he told of one man who asked for a place on the city pay roll. When the applicant was asked what kind of work he wanted to do, he replied: "Work be d—d; I don't want work, I want a job."

General M. H. Sherman told a story, which was followed by a toast to "The Governor." Isidore Dockweiler, member of the library board, the candidate on the Democratic ticket last fall for lieutenant governor, responding to this toast.

Presented With Silver Service
Mr. O'Melveny was again called upon by Mayor Diss, this time to make a presentation speech. The mayor's guests had planned a surprise, which was uncovered when two attendants bore to the head of the table a large oak case containing a splendid silver service, a gift from the members of the commission.

The mayor, it was a heartfelt speech of few words that Mr. O'Melveny made, saying that the men who made the gift were the people of the city, the most confident in the mayor; that all love and honor and respect him. Mr. O'Melveny made tender of the silver service as a mark of these feelings. The mayor's response at first was unsteady. He could with difficulty control his emotions. "There is a time in the life of a man when he is absolutely unable to express his feelings. This is such a time in my life," he began.

R. H. Hay Chapman spoke for "The Press." Gustav Lang of the police board told a story and Colonel Griffith J. Griffith of the park board answered the toast. "Parks and Boulevard." Other speakers were: William Mead, Dr. W. H. Hitchcock of the health board, Dr. R. V. Day, J. P. Taylor, Isidore Dockweiler, James A. Keeney, J. W. F. Diss, A. P. Thomson, Ross T. Hickox, Austin O. Martin, H. M. Lova, J. F. Zinkard of San Francisco, who was a

WOMEN OF UNITED STATES

Regard Pe-ru-na as Their Shield Against Catarrh, Coughs, Colds, Grip and Catarrhal Diseases.

MISS LENORE ALLEN.

Miss Lenore Allen, 407 Dowell street, San Francisco, Cal., writes: "I consider Pe-ru-na an infallible remedy for catarrhal diseases. For several years I have been troubled with influenza, especially during our rainy season. I used to catch cold so easily that I was afraid to be out when the weather was the least bit inclement, or in the evening air. But since I have used Pe-ru-na I have nothing whatever the matter with me. I am in perfect health, and find that Pe-ru-na acts as a tonic, and seems to throw all sickness and disease out of the body. I go anywhere now and in all kinds of weather, seem to have an iron constitution and enjoy life because I enjoy perfect health."—Lenore Allen.

at once, and I am glad to say that in three days the phlegm had loosened, and I felt better. My appetite returned and within a few days I was in my usual health."

Mrs. Leslie Carter says: "Pe-ru-na is sure to prevent a cold." Mrs. Leslie Carter, probably the most prominent actress in America, says the following of Pe-ru-na: "Pe-ru-na is sure to prevent a cold. It will stop a cough before it becomes settled. It cures all catarrhal affections like maggot, and I could not tell you how many times I have used it. It is just the remedy all women need especially such women that are exposed to the vicissitudes of climate as I am."

Pe-ru-na Protects Against Colds. Miss Flora Wilson, 242 Seventh avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "One half the world knows what the other half suffers. Little have my friends known of the humiliation and worry I suffered for years on account of catarrh of the head and throat. 'Used inhalers, soufs and catarrh remedies until I hated the sight of medicines and grew discouraged. Last fall one of my friends said, 'Why don't you use Pe-ru-na?' I tried it and I have found it is lucky that I did, for in less than three weeks I was entirely well. Accept a happy and grateful girl's thanks."—May Stevenson.

Pe-ru-na Cured a Bad Cold in Three Days. Miss Helen Sauerbrey, St. Joseph, Mich., writes: "Last winter I caught a sudden cold which developed into an unpleasant catarrh of the head and throat, depriving me of my appetite and usual good spirits. A friend who had been cured by Pe-ru-na advised me to try it and I sent for a bottle any one who wishes perfect health must be entirely free from catarrh. Catarrh is a high-nigh universal, almost omnipresent. Pe-ru-na is the only absolute safeguard known. A cold is the beginning of catarrh. To prevent colds, to cure colds, is to cheat catarrh out of its victims. Pe-ru-na not only cures catarrh but prevents it. Every household should be supplied with this great remedy for coughs, colds and catarrhal diseases."

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Pe-ru-na write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis. Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

the provisions of the new charter. The mayor said that he had called the board members together that he might see them and become better acquainted with them; and that they might know each other better. It was not the purpose to hold a council on how to conduct the affairs of the city, and such discussion was merely incidental to the social side of the gathering.

It was as representative a body of men as would meet for any purpose. In the number were men of all the professions—men who have succeeded in all of them. The mayor congratulated best that the Angelus cuisine could furnish, was served from 8 o'clock.

Mayor's Address of Welcome
After the courses, the mayor made a speech of welcome, in which he told the guests the pleasure that he felt at meeting his appointees in a body. He told what was his purpose in appointing them—not that they might carry
