

Heather III

Now the scenario changes, and Heather is really Hamine. You learn the following information about Hamine.

- Her husband was kidnapped and killed because of his political beliefs.
- She lived in a refugee camp for a year with her children, ages 4, 5, and 7.
- She came to Canada two years ago as a refugee to escape continued political instability and fear of violence.
- She arrived with one bag of clothing for the children and no other personal effects.
- She received refugee funding for the first year, but was barely able to sustain life for herself and her children.
